

Hartford Weekly Herald.

FRANK L. FELIX — Proprietor.
BERTH MATTHEWS — Editor.

Subscription - $1 per Year, in advance.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 19.

AMEND THE BALLOT LAW.

The Louisville Dispatch is calling upon the Legislature to amend present election law, among other things:

HERALD stated last week, it was primarily the man's methods which were at stake. His election, however, should be a source of regret to no Democrat. It was either Hanna or another Republican and no Republican could do his party more damage than the hostile statesman. No better thing should be desired by Democrats than the notorious Hanna as the champion of Republicanism, and the central figure of a party whose bogus claims to honesty in election times have always been quite well understood.

COL. ION B. NALL will again be a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture in this State and again he will find at his back the press boys who love him for his noble life and spindrift character, and all of Western Kentucky, which is composed of the most ignorant people. By the blunders of others and by the treachery of the forces which defeated Wat Hardin in 1895, Col. Nall went down with his party in defeat, and it was no fault of his that he did not win before. Now that the Democratic party is again in the ascendancy in the State it is due to Col. Nall that he be given the nomination which he seeks and for the office which he is so pre-eminently qualified to fill. Ohio county commands to the Democracy of Kentucky a study of the life and character of this son of hers who will ask for party honors in 1899.

The HERALD most heartily concurs in all that is here said. This paper has not allowed itself to commit the offense against the ethics of journalism by attempting to manufacture a sentiment favorable to one side of a law suit now pending in the courts of this county as has been done to the shame of a Republican paper here. With the judicial investigation of the facts in the last election here this paper has nothing to do with the final determination of the controversy as it affects the parties to it.

The publication has an interest in pure and fair elections, however, which impels us to say that no man who has given the present ballot law any intelligent study can escape the conviction of the truth stated by the Constitution:

"With the judicial investigation of the facts in the last election here this paper has nothing to do with the final determination of the controversy as it affects the parties to it."

The publication has an interest in pure and fair elections, however, which impels us to say that no man who has given the present ballot law any intelligent study can escape the conviction of the truth stated by the Constitution:

It is possible under the law as at present framed to make of our popular elections little less than marts where offices are put up and sold to the highest bidder.

The election law ought to be amended and if this Legislature fails to do this service to the people of all parties who favor the rule of intellect over force, it will deserve and receive the most unfavorable criticism by the people of the State. Let action in this important matter begin at once.

NEWSPAPERS CONSOLIDATE.

The Herald-Ledger, which is now up as a combination of the Herald and Ledger, respectively published in that city, is upon our exchange table.

The Herald has for years—like its name sake at Hartford, Ky.—been the leading paper of its county.

During the last two years, however, it has made the mistake of wandering from its allegiance to the Democratic party which has stood at its back so long.

The result was that it soon found itself practically without readers—the truth is the Democrats of this part of Kentucky make up the largest per cent of those who buy and read newspapers—and for some time it wallowed along amid the rocks of gold-bugs, returning finally to half-hearted support of the party it had forsaken in an evil hour.

Its course, however, was not condemned and the Ledger rapidly grew to be the leading paper in its territory.

The consolidation of the two papers puts the splendid property into able hands. Mr. A. G. Rhein will be President and Editor, Mr. H. S. McCutchen, Vice-President, and Mr. J. G. Coke, Jr., Secretary and Manager.

It announces that it will at all times be true to the doctrines and nominees of the Democratic party and we predict for the Herald-Ledger a long life of profit and usefulness.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS SPOKE.

Our neighbors over in Hancock and Breckinridge have a green way of prodling each other about many funny things which do happen in those charming localities. The Hancock Clarion has this, the point of which will be appreciated when it is remembered that these newspapers are very good neighbors and like most of them, sometimes fall down on their English. The Clarion says:

The Cowherd Advocate at Clermont falls off the log yesterday with a start because it lists what he says do happen in Hancock. He can't understand somebody to Frankfort to represent us in the legislature. He can't see us by RIGHTEOUS hands getting himself. All eyes are on him.

Mr. Hawell and Hartree, in all a jolly mix up.

The election of Mr. Mark Hanna to the United States Senate from Ohio is a great cause of congratulation to the leaders of Republicanism and they feel it and the more self-respecting ones acknowledge it. The bitter opposition in his own party was strong evidence of the feeling against him and of the sentiments of those who, although compelled to follow his political sway, are of the same opinion still. The methods by which his election was brought about are quite well known to those who ever saw or heard of the man, for, as the this puerile sheet. Such partisans are disengaged.

The expression "dog cheap" don't go in the Klondike country. Stout young dogs sell there at from $50 to $100 apiece.

FRANKFORT LETTER.

[From our regular correspondent.]

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 15, 1888.

The event of the election has probably ordered the nomination of a Liberal. The nomination event has come and gone, and Miss Pauline Hardin is the Democratic nominee for the position. Frank Cavender, the man who loves her for his noble life and spindrift character, and all of Western Kentucky, which is composed of the most ignorant people, will be unable to make his case. By the blunders of others and by the treachery of the forces which defeated Wat Hardin in 1895, Col. Nall went down with his party in defeat, and it was no fault of his that he did not win before.

Now that the Democratic party is again in the ascendancy in the State it is due to Col. Nall that he be given the nomination which he seeks and for the office which he is so pre-eminently qualified to fill. Ohio county commands to the Democracy of Kentucky a study of the life and character of this son of hers who will ask for party honors in 1899.

One marvel of these and of the century days is the rapidity with which the political tribe known in certain quarters as "Popocrats" have sprung from the earth. Even the Courier Journal which could formerly find a brat at every crook to huri at this latest and brightest genry which it declared were a hand of nobodies led by nobodies and representing nothing save revolution, repudiation and anarchy, now refers to the supporters of Mr. Bryan and the Chicago platform as Democratic.

In their halcyon days when Republicanism no longer controls the legislative branch of our State government and when Sam Shackford was being tried and condemned in Kentucky, we hear no more about Popocrats. Will the Courier Journal please tell us what has become of the Popocrats?

GOV. BRADLEY seems just to have awakened to the great infinity of the separate coach law for white people and negroes, and urges the adoption of the act in his message. It is to be hoped that he will succeed.

The State Librarian has just turned over to the Treasurer $18,000 secured from the sale of books and records during the past year.

The House has invited Hon. W. J. Bryan to address it during the present session and to speak on a topic of his choice.

Mr. Bryan has agreed to do so.

On January 25, at 12 o'clock he has been fixed as the day for electing a State Librarian.

The House teachers of the State will not have to wait as long for their last payment this year as they were compelled to do last. The Auditor and Treasurer think the delay will be for a short time.

Several school bills have been introduced. Mr. Jaragnin's book bill which is much more conservative than some, is given here in full so that his supporters may be enabled to do justice to it.

It is enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. The State board of education shall meet on or before June 30, 1898, and adopt a list of text books on the subjects taught in the common schools, which shall be adopted by the State board but shall not exceed 100 titles.

2. It is enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. The State board of education shall not adopt any text books of an immoral, obscene, or sectarian character, or any text books for schools nor the text books of any publisher or persons selling such text books, unless said publisher or person has first had in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction a copy of the bill.

2. It is enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

1. The State board of education shall not adopt any text books of the kind mentioned in section two, and shall establish and maintain in all the public schools in any county in the State and it shall be the further duty of the State board to require of the head of the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to furnish to the State board a copy of the bill as revised or corrected, and the opinion which manifests itself among the people to the advances of the golden dragon.

With all caution the gold clique seems satisfied enough to show its ultimate purpose which may be summarized as follows:

1. All payments shall be finally discharged in the form of bright gold.

2. The production of gold shall be the chief object of the State.

3. Silver money and coins shall ultimately be left in the hands of the bankers, the Government being entirely "out of the bank business," and, therefore, relieved of the necessity of making statistical reports.

4. Silver money and coins shall be made redeemable in gold.

5. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

6. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

7. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

8. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

9. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

10. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

11. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

12. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

13. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

14. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

15. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

16. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

17. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

18. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

19. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

20. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

21. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

22. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

23. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

24. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

25. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

26. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

27. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

28. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

29. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

30. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

31. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

32. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

33. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

34. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

35. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

36. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

37. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

38. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

39. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

40. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

41. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

42. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

43. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

44. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

45. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

46. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

47. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

48. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

49. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

50. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

51. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

52. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

53. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

54. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

55. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

56. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

57. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

58. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

59. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

60. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

61. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

62. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

63. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

64. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

65. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

66. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

67. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

68. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

69. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

70. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

71. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

72. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

73. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

74. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

75. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

76. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

77. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

78. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

79. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

80. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

81. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

82. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

83. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

84. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

85. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

86. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

87. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

88. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

89. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

90. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

91. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

92. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

93. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

94. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

95. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

96. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

97. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

98. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

99. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

100. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

101. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

102. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

103. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

104. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

105. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

106. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

107. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

108. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

109. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

110. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

111. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

112. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

113. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

114. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

115. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

116. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

117. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

118. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

119. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

120. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

121. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

122. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

123. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

124. The banks may deposit or contract the currency more rapidly than by means of notes, thus saving the cost of paper money.

Hartford House

Is thoroughly refurnished, refitted and repaired, and is now conducted by F.W. Boyce, of Louisville.

First-Class Hotel

Best of fare, large, well-furnished rooms, with good service, at low prices.

Hartford Weekly Herald.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 10.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R.R.

Beaver Dam, Ky.—Time Table.

NORTH-BOUND.

Express	144.50
Accommodation	5.75
Local Freight	1.50
Accommodation	13.50
Express	11.50
Accommodation	1.50
Local Freight	1.50
Accommodation	1.50

SOUTH-BOUND.

Express	144.50
Accommodation	5.75
Local Freight	1.50
Accommodation	13.50
Express	11.50
Accommodation	1.50
Local Freight	1.50
Accommodation	1.50

The North-bound Express train due at 4 a.m. and the South-bound train due at 10 a.m. will stop at Beaver Dam. The express train will stop at Beaver Dam to discharge passengers en route to Louisville. The express train will stop at Frankfort, Ky., and the South-bound train will stop at Louisville. All other trains stop at Beaver Dam, except the express train to United States and Canada. Accidents and deaths are reported to the express train. Be aware of the express train.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL R.R.

The express train to Beaver Dam, Ky.

Express Train.

The voice of nature cries—
The voice of John Jones—
The voice of the world—
And failing that—
If failed also in trade,
then we will let it go.
We will let it go.

U.S. ILLINOIS SWANS DOWN.

When in Hartford, less your horse at Field's stable for the best attention.

Eschafford J. Stevens made a trip to Frankfort on business last week.

Remember Schrotor, the photographer, guarantees fine-class work at very low rates.

J. H. PATTON & CO.

Mrs. Nellie A. Bennett, Buda, Ky., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John E. Foster, Idaho.

John D. Atkinson, a well-known lawyer of Owensboro, has married with the Methodist church.

J. H. PATTON & CO.

Miss Edna Griffin left yesterday for Elton, Ky., where she will visit Mrs. C. E. Miller, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Mrs. J. V. Miller, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Mrs. W. E. Miller, and Misses L. Miller, Eva Davenport, and Minnie Moore, Old Brownsville, R. R. 1, Evansport, U. S. and Pennsylvania, and Louisville, Ky.

Wells, Farnum & Co.

We are glad to state that the condition of Alexander Everett Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellis, near town, whose life has been hanging on a thread for several days, is much improved. He is now in the hospital, his condition slightly improved.

Field and Son are now running two elegant "horses" to and from Beaver Dam. They meet all trains. For a quick and comfortable ride, book soon. Remember the Floating Studio turns out nothing but the best.

Mr. T. C. Snell died at his residence near Horton, last Monday morning. His remains were interred in the Alex. and Burns cemetery grounds yesterday. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. W. H. Miller, who performed a manful and good standing.

Judge S. D. Morgan, who has been engaged in the hotel business at Horseshoe, the Richland Steam Laundry, Hotel called the "Swan," the Clyde, Well-digging, at the Commercial Hotel, Hartford, Ky., Ladies' shirtwaist specialty.

Schrotor, the photog., is at the Hartford wharf, will remain until Saturday, and those wishing first-hand work at low prices should call soon. Remember the Floating Studio turns out nothing but the best.

Mr. T. C. Snell died at his residence near Horton, last Monday morning. His remains were interred in the Alex. and Burns cemetery grounds yesterday. Funeral services were conducted by Dr. W. H. Miller, who performed a manful and good standing.

Judge S. D. Morgan, who has been engaged in the hotel business at Horseshoe, the Richland Steam Laundry, Hotel called the "Swan," the Clyde, Well-digging, at the Commercial Hotel, Hartford, Ky., Ladies' shirtwaist specialty.

The浮游工作室

Thin Blood

Where the blood loses its intense red—grows thin and watery, as in anemia, there is a constant feeling of exhaustion, a lack of energy—vitality and the spirits depressed.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda is peculiarly adapted to correct this condition. The cod-liver oil emulsion, which is easily digested, enters the blood direct and feeds its every corporeal, restoring the natural color and giving vitality to the whole system.

The disease caused by Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

One of the foot-soreness in the Legata.

There is a resolution introduced by Rep. representative Jarman, of Ohio, that would prohibit the sale of Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

One of the foot-soreness in the Legata.

There is a resolution introduced by Rep.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

Scott's Emulsion

is the foot-soreness in the Legata.

